

Parent Partnership and Commitment agreement

Vallabh Vidya Mandir (VVM) is blessed to have many families and students that are interested in maintaining and promoting our cultural heritage. VVM wholeheartedly embraces and values the Hindu and Pushti Marg heritage and is building environment to promote them. Basic and vital to the universal needs of the child is an involved parents who demonstrates to their child that VVM is important by being engaged in their child's VVM activities and events that occur during the school year. With this said, our goal is to encourage parents to participate at VVM during the duration of their child's enrollment at VVM. That following is a Parent Partnership and Commitment Agreement, which is being implemented in order to bring forth awareness and expectations of our student's parents. VVM seeks to provide a foundation for life-long learning, which enhances personal integration and understanding of the interdependence. Communication between family and the school is essential to this process. A partnership between home and Scholl creates optimal opportunities for development.

To be an involved parent on behalf of our child

- We will do our part by attending festivals, parties and VVM events so that our child will not only have wonderful memories of a good time but of parents who cared and were involved
- We will make sure that our child will be wearing clothing appropriate to attend VVM and VPSS facility.
- We will bring our child to VVM on time for the classes and will pick him/her on time, so that our child will learn value of being on time. VVM is not a child care facility and as parents we will ensure timeliness for drop off and pick up times.
- We will become familiar with VVM activities and our Child's curriculum.
- We will do our part as time permits by volunteering for events and VVM needs as listed on the Parent volunteer form
- We will support in some way through the Annual direct donations. We understand that 100% participation in this effort is requested of all parents. Equal commitment, but not necessarily equal donation.
- We will support VVM by following the guidelines, so that our child takes full advantage of the educational opportunities.
In doing so we will conduct ourselves in a mutually respectful manner in order to help maintain the harmonious atmosphere that is present at VVM.

With this commitment in mind, we have signed this Agreement and filled out in the volunteer program form and returned both documents to VVM.
